

Don't Cry My Brother

Copyrighted © by H.W. Ted Stuckless

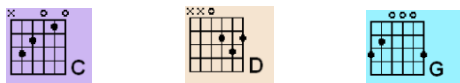

Refrain

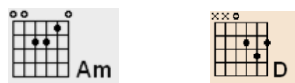

Don't cry my brother

Don't cry my friend

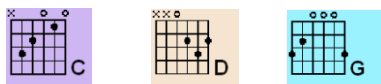

Cause tomorrow will bring back the sun

The night may seem longer

Than you can endure

But the battle has almost been won.

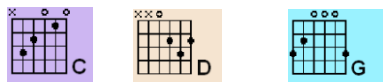

(Sing at the end)

So hold on my brother

Hold on my friend

Cause the battle has almost been won

[verse 1]

Sometimes, the people

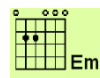

We love most of all

They do things

That can tear us in two
And the tears

That we shed

Are like raindrops that fall

And there's nothing

It seems we can do

(Refrain)

[verse 2 – use same chords as verse 1]

So when you're standing
In heartaches
And you feel all alone
Remember where you
Used to stand
But you cast off those demons
And you turned to the Truth
And you followed
The world's greatest man